

Little Girl

Lyrics & music: Clarence B Thunborg

So many things that spins within my mind
Who are you now and what do you expect to find So long time
our longing growing strong
So many years
I didn't know where you belong

Little girl, I'm falling for you
Little girl
what in the world do I mean to you?
Little girl, I'm falling for you
Little girl
do I mean the world to you?

You say so many things and I believe it all is true Believe me darling,
I feel the same way too Burning hearts,
despite the fear we share
You can trust me
I will always be near

Little girl...

I'm entering the danger zone,
my heart is open again
I'm entering the danger zone,
I'm vulnerable again

We are much older now no time for playing games
You got to be honest,
I don't want my heart to change
We been waiting long enough now in the blue Believe we found a love that is really true

Little girl...

I'm entering the danger zone,
my heart is open again
I'm entering the danger zone,
I'm vulnerable again
I'm entering the danger zone,
I'm vulnerable again
