

Untamed

Lyrics: Clarence B Thunborg

Music: Clarence B Thunborg, Mikael Danielsson

You make me loose my control, my mind is set on you
You make me wild and crazy with what you whispering too
You are a wild untamed beauty
You're the woman that I need

You make me lose my mind, when you play your seductive games
Your insatiable lips take away all my self restrain
You are a wild untamed beauty
You're the woman that I need and I want

All that I need is more of you
All that you need is more of me

You're eyes are full of desire, it's easy too see
I'll give you pleasure, I'm ready you can come to me
You are a wild untamed beauty
You're the woman that I want and I need

All that I need is more of you
All that you need is more of me
You're in my dreams, there are you so am I
We have no secrets, there are no regrets
No hesitation, no question why
All that I need is more of you
All that you need is more of me
All that I need is more of you
All that you need is more of me
